

DAILY GRAPHIC REVIEW OF NEWS EVENTS

COL. JAMES W. WILLETT, of Tama, Iowa, was recent caller on President Harding. (K. V.)

PACIFIC MAIL LINER President Taft carried these five beauties to Orient to marry Americans. Top row, left to right: Edna Lee Hind, Marjorie Snow Hopkins and Pauline Biggs. Bottom row, left to right: Margaret F. Meyers and Clarita Numan. (Int'l Newsreel.)

"I'LL NEVER DO IT AGAIN" says Edythe Sterling, movie star, serving five days in Los Angeles jail for auto speeding. She is shown at her prison task of bathing dishes. (Int'l Newsreel.)

WINNER OF $5,000,000 in sixteen suits in British courts, Mrs. Ida Wynne French, daughter of former U. S. Consul General to London, and wife of Captain Hugh Ronald French, has sailed for New York. Although suits were against husband, they were of friendly nature, designed to save his estate for him, instead of having it go to other heirs. (N. Y. A.)

WITH FARRACUT at sea was Doug Dan O'Shea, who helped capture New Orleans. His associates in New York's Park Department presented him this painting as memento. (Int'l Newsreel.)

TWO SPANISH STAMPS of 1851, which sold at recent sale in Paris for $28,000. (Int'l Newsreel.)

SOMETHING NEW IN SPONGES (above), cut into artistic designs, are marketed in Great Britain for Xmas holidays. (Int'l Newsreel.)

SCHUMANN-HEINK'S SON and bride, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Schumann (right), have returned from Europe to be with diva, who is seriously ill. (Int'l Newsreel.)

SENATOR CLARENCE C. DILL, Democrat, of Spokane, Washington, only 38, is youngest member of U. S. Senate. He is Ohioan by birth. (Int'l Newsreel.)

TOM, pet orang-outang, which Frank H. Buck brought with shipload of wild animals to Los Angeles. (Int'l Newsreel.)

PEGGY HOPKINS JOYCE WRITHED with envy when she saw 50-carat diamond Miss Mabel Boll, of Paris, disappear, according to Miss Boll when she arrived for American visit. (Int'l Newsreel.)

MRS. W. W. CAMPBELL, wife of Director of Lick Observatory, Mount Hamilton, Cal., aided in photographing eclipses of sun in Australia. (Int'l Newsreel.)

"THIN ICE" has nothing on ship's superstructure for danger, but Dorothy Markham, noted English actress, takes chance on latter as she sails for England to play in former. (Int'l Newsreel.)

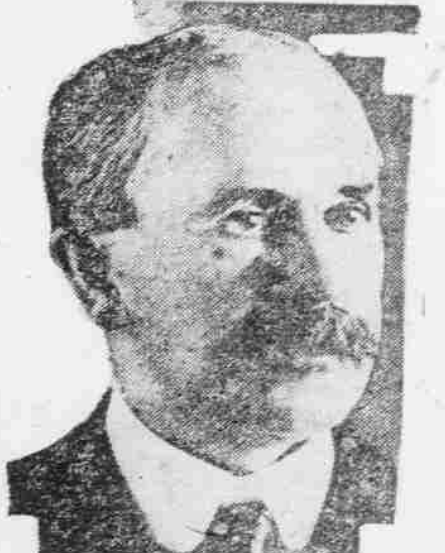

PRESIDENT HARDING SAW THIS PLEA FOR SAFETY, feature of parade in Washington as part of "Don't Get Hurt" week programme. Copyright, 1932, International News Service.

LATEST PHOTOGRAPH of Secretary of Navy Denby.

MISS MARGARET BONDFIELD, leader of Women's Labor Movement, was beaten in race for British Parliament. (Int'l Newsreel.)

REVENGEFUL BOOTLEGERS set fire to home of Judge J. G. Maguire, at Woburn, Mass., and nearly killed entire family. (Int'l Newsreel.)